If His Encellency made the statement attributed to him, he asserted as a fact, a matter about which he knew absolutely nothing, and about which moreover it was simply impossible that he could knew anything. The physicians of Honolutu are not required to make, and do not make, any return to the authorities of either the cases treated by them or of the deaths which occur in their practice. The only information the Board of Health or the Minister of the Interior have on the subject is obtained from the record of burials. His Excellence could not to save his life have told even approximatorly how many cases of fever were treated learn could not so save his life have told even approximately how many cases of fever were treated

Last week the Legislature passed the usual reso-lation to send a committee of thirteen to the Leper Settlement on Moderai. But the next day the thing was reconsidered and knocked in the head. It rather leaked out that no steamer could be precursed to take up this free excursion party, and so Mr. Stamma proposed that the committee be invited to go in the Warsick, the leper vessel, that they might see the whole thing, this eminently practical suggestion was treated with scorn, and the thirteen melted away like hoar-frost. This is as it should be assuing this crowd to Molokai every two reads in the face of the splendid care taken of these poor unfortunates, is a foolish waste of pub-lic money. This prompt and fearlies act on the part of young Dower deserves public recognition.

A leader in last week's Knoker reviews the re cent action in removing the principal of the Hilo Union School. There is certainly something in the action of the Board of Education worth enquiring into, particularly in view of the fact that the matter of removal was in some respect that the matter of removal was in some respect in favor of Hon. Mr. Wahine, whose favorable vote might therefore be expected for the appro-priations and any other legislation for that depart-ment. Perhaps the Board will say it is more of the public's business. True, and the public might reply that it is none of the Board's business if by their acts they incur disapproval and lose the general respect, so that their acts become worth-less.

A wee hit of a small boy about knee high to some men was hauled up before His Honor of the Police Court on Monday and gravely charged with "attempt as a secon." Such a ponderous charge nearly overwhelmed the little chap, who said he was not the fellow, it was a boy who lived at Waikahalnin. The facts are that some little tot or other was seen during the day, Sunday, with about an inch of candle trying to light a heap of rubbish piled dangerously near a house in Paukolo. As that locality is literally crammed with houses, it will be seen that a first there would be no mean affair. However our jolly, free and easy good luck statement of Mr. Gibson, used according to the report of the Adverser, the following language: "The A wee bit of a small boy about knee high to John came before the bar of the Police Justice again the other day, this time as a complainant again the other day, this time as a complainant however. He charged one Paulo with injuring his feelings and business besides taking off the edge of his profits, by passing off a "dix centimes" price on him for a quarter. Paulo wanted a five-cent cabbage and paying for it with the copper, received two dimes in exchange, whereupon he walked off. There lay the cabbage, stale with waiting, the copper and the dimes. John and Paulo were sleepy and restless with anxiety, loss of time and the endless chances of a trial. As it assemed not unlikely that John really thought it (the copper) a gold piece in the darkness, and two seemed not unlikely that John really thought it (the copper) a gold piece in the darkness, and two dimes probably chuckled softly to himself at his gains and the stupidity of the kanaka boy, and only found his virtee on going to a light and looking at the coin: and Paulo was evidently a very dull person, duzed with amazement at his good luck at getting two coins and a cabbage for one coin, the matter was compromised and (police) justice satisfied. First the two dimes and cabbage were handed the kanaka, then the copper was placed in John's land; then they exchanged commodities, John grunted. Paulo grinned and scratched his head, everybody laughed and the court adjourned. Tablean.

She fully merited the enthusi-astic applaces which greeted her appearance, and which afterwards testified to the pleasure of het audience at her finished and whole-souled rendiaudience at her finished and whole-souled renu-tion of her various parts. The general respect and good will was evidenced in no stronger way than by the perfect order observed in the galleries, which have too often been, in recent years, the scenes of disgraceful uproar. This time the atten-tion paid by the natives showed not only their en-joyment of the rich and bird-like tones of the sincer, but the strong personal friendship which which have too often became the attention of a profound faith in the man who can at the paralties of the law, were hunting up down for Judge Harris. The part taken by the Minsteal Society and Mr. Berger with his carefully trained musicians ongit not to be forgotten. The only objection to the band is that the music is too lond for a room like that. Mr. Hamden's solo was not without merit. The next Montague concert will be awaited eagerly.

Good rains fell in Makawao last week. Two white policemen are required-one for Wailuku and one for Makawao.

Saturday, the 3rd, was almost universally observed as a holiday on Maui. Feasts and horse races were the order of the day. Wailuku Plantation, not having recovered from the novel sensation of declaring dividends, con-tinues to advertise the same. Mani people think it time that both terms of the Circuit Court were held at Wailuku. If the greatest good and convenience of the greatest number is consulted, the change will certainly be made. Last week a Chinese workman on the East Mani Plantation assaulted his Chinese overseer with a cane knife. But for the strength and agility of the overseer he would have been killed. The as-sailant was committed for jury trial.

Who is responsible for the mutilation of current coin in vogue in Lahaina? The people there have never passed dimes as a currency of value, but in-stead they cut in two silver quarters and thus get their rials. Whose business is it to stop this? Who are to be the losers if these mutilated coins are no longer allowed to pass?

Lahaina grapes are in their prime, and the orange trees are beginning to bear abundantly, stimulated by their well-watered growth, or shielded by the dense shade of the surrounding trees from the withering influence of the tropical sun. With ba-nanas at 25 cents a bunch, why can't they be ex-ported to Honolulu and sold at a reasonable profit.

Gen. Armstrong with a party of ladies and gen-Gen. Armstrong with a party of ladies and gentlemen rode through Haleakala to Kaupo, returning by way of Hana and Koolau. While crossing one of the precipices in Koolau the horse of one of the ladies slipped off the trail, and while hanging for a moment by his fore feet Mr. L. A. Andrews sprang to the rescue and by his strength and presence of mind removed the lady from her perilous position. It was thought by those who witnessed the exploit that but for Mr. Andrews' daring and promptitude her life would have been lost.

We hear that the examination and the rhetorical we near that the eramination and the restorical exercises at the Lahainaluna Seminary passed off very creditably. 'Besides a written examination, corrected for marks, there is an oral examination, in which the scholars show their proficiency in the studies of the year. It was evident that the three teachers, Mesers, Hitchcock, Hascal and Bloomer had done their work faithfully. Mr. Hitchcock's class in political economy was sound on the money question. Mr. Hascal's class in English grammar had an intelligent apprehension of the facts they had studied. Mr. Bloomer's class in arithmetic wrestied successfully with the puzzling questions propounded to them. The singing by the pupils showed increasing taste and skill. The military drill, under the charge of one of the senior class, showed aptitude for command on his part, and good material for military service in the students. At the exhibition in the Church, while there was much indistinctness of utterance of English words in the first speakers, there was a manifest improvement in this among the later speakers, and the original speeches were quite effectively rendered. The measles and the mumps, which have been epidemic in the school the past winter, have interfered somewhat with the progress of the students. Next exercises at the Lahainaluna Seminary passed off very creditably. "Besides a written examination, The measles and the mumps, which have been epidemic in the school the past winter, have interfered somewhat with the progress of the students. Next year will be the semi-centennial of this important institution. The Lahainaluna graduates and students ought to begin at once making proper preparation for the celebration for the 50th anniversary. Way not have it at Honolulu? Mr. Hascal has leave of absence for six months. Mr. Walter Frear will teach during his absence.

There is now in the shed near the wharf at Hilo There is now in the shed near the wharf at Hilo a nondescript caison, battery wagon, or what not on wheels, all painted red, and apparently ready for action. It is confidently asserted by some of the knowing ones, that it is to hold the powder, etc., to be used in the big gun that is shortly expected for the celebration, on the occasion of the grand canal from Hilo to Laupahoehoe. Others however say it is only a contrivance gotten up by our Road Supervisor in which to sleep nights when out on the road.

The canal between Hilo and Laupahoehoe is progressing. So near completion is it—in spote—that we hear talk of asking the Legislature for an appropriation for building a few boats to ply on the various sections. It has been a question how our wise Road Supervisor wanted join the sections of this canal he is building, he having washed out to sea all the earth taken from the deep cuts, which if carefully husbanded would have filled in the gulches to a proper level. It may however be in his mind, a cheaper, better, and more expeditious way to build the canal over the gulches on poles. So near completion is it—in spots

The steamer Australia arrived from the Son JUST RECEIVED on Monday forenoon bringing dates to June 21st. We clip the following.

We clip the following.

Brillin, June 15.—The representatives of the Great Powers held a conference to-day. They have held several meetings of a preliminary character. It is understood that a complete understanding is likely to be arrived at on an early date as to the steps to be taken for the settlement of the various questions submitted to them, and insisting on an early compliance with the demands of the Powers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 15.—The Turkish Govern CONSTANTINGLE, June 15.—The Turkish Government has sent a circular dispatch to its representatives abroad, instructing them to declare to the Great Powers that Turkey will not consider itself as in any way bound by the decision of the Berlin Conference, because it has been excluded from taking part in the deliberations. This action, it is believed, is owing to the attitude assumed by the Ulmas and others, in counselling the Porte to resist the demand of the Powers. It is expected that some decisive action will be taken to force compliance, but in what manner is not yet known.

BERLYN, June 17.—The ENDORGEN Conference Behlin, June 17—The European Conference commenced its sittings to-day. Prince Hohenlohe was elected president. The proceedings of the conference are kept secret. It is understood however, that its labora will at first be confined to a settlement of the Greek frontier question. It is at present uncertain whether the scope of the business will be so extended so as to include a discussion was constituted.

sion upon other questions. CALCUTTA, June 10.—The Viceroy of India has sent an order to General Stewart to evacuate Cabul by November. It is expected that Gandamuk and Shutargardan will be the extreme points in Afghanistan that will be retained by the British. London, June 10.—Information has been re-ceived that the Albanians are disbanding and a resumption of hostilities with the Montenegram is now improbable.

London, May 22.—It has been officially stated that the cost of the Afghan campaign up to the present time is $7,154,000. LONDON, June 11.—Advices from Valparais state that the war in South America is being prostate that the war in South America is being prosecuted with unabated vigor on the side of the Chilians. The Chilians are following up their recent victory at Tacna, and have advanced with a great force to Arica, in Southern Pern, which the fleet unsuccessfully bombarded a few months ago. After an obstinate resistance they succeeded in capturing the town, which is now in their possession. This success, it is expected, will enable them to carry the war further into the enemy's country, as they can make Arica the base of future operations.

country, as any can make Arica the base of future operations.

London, June 14.—The scene in the House of Commons yesterday lasted six hours, and was unexampled by any occurrence of late years. The Speaker was utterly powerless to restrain the turbulent Home Rule members, who were greatly incensed at the action of Mr. Gladstone in moving that Mr. O'Donnell be not heard. The Irish members accused Mr. Gladstone of endeavoring to gag members of the House, and denounced the whole of the Ministers as embodiments of Caesarism. Mr. Forster delivered a trenchant and caustic speech on the conduct of the Irish members. He asserted that the member for Dungaryam Mr. O'Donnell, had outraged the decencies of society and wantonly imperilled international amity, by the grossly personal attack he had made upon the French Ambassador. After the excitement had abated order was restored. Mr. Gladstone effected a compromise with the turbulent members, and withdrew his motion.

ATHENS, June 18.—The Greek Government has Arms, sume 1c.—1he Greek Government has sent a circular note to the great Powers, setting forth a claim for territory between Jamina and Prevesa via South of Albania, and for an exten-sive district in the province of Thessaly. The demand of the Government will, it is announced, be referred to the Special Commission to be dis-patched by the Berlin Conference to settle the Turco-Greek frontier question on the spot. London, June 6.-Some skirmishes have taken place between Russian and Chinese soldiers. The war between the two countries is being carried on in a fitful, uncertain manner. London, June 14.—In consequence of the agita-tian which prevails in Turkestan the Russians are advancing on Kashgar.

CALCUTTA, June 8.—The Marquis of Ripon, the new Viceroy of India, has arrived at Simia. The Radicals are signing another memorial petitioned for the immediate recall of Sir Bartle Frere from the Govnership of the Cape. Mr. Gladstone evidently hopes Sir Bartle Frere will resign, and the Cabinet are divided on the question. Hew Advertisements.
